IN offering a book of this kind to the citizens of New York, — who have heretofore been obliged to consult the records, at the cost of much time and trouble, for the information herein compiled and printed — the Publisher has the pleasure of stating that the statistics have all been furnished from the Tax Receiver's Office, by W. A. DARLING, Esq., Deputy Receiver of Taxes, and therefore may be relied on as being the exact amount of Taxes paid by citizens in 1850, whose property, real and personal, is valued at $17,500, and upwards.

The Publisher also takes this opportunity to remark, for the information of the public, that his principal object in issuing the Tax Book is to furnish the mercantile community with a book of reference, so much desired ; and he assures them that it has been carefully revised by the records, and is correct and accurate in every particular.

It will be observed that a great portion of the City Tax is paid by incorporated companies ; and it may not be improper to add that though the amount of Taxes paid is accurately furnished, it should not, in every case, be regarded as an exact index of the

It will be observed that a great portion of the City Tax is paid by incorporated companies; and it may not be improper to add that though the amount of Taxes paid is accurately furnished, it should not, in every case, be regarded as an exact index of the payer's fortune — as many of those here mentioned own large properties in Brooklyn, Williamsburg, Jersey City, and other places — but are, of course, taxed only for what they own here.

The Publisher intends to issue, next year, a more voluminous work, of the same character — giving, among other improvements, a list of all citizens taxed upon an amount much lower than $17,500; that sum now yields $200 to the City Treasury.

NORTH AMERICAN Fire Insurance Company.

OFFICE, 67 WALL STREET, NEW-YORK.

Capital, $250,000.

This Company, originally incorporated as the "Phoenix Fire Insurance Company," in 1823, since the disastrous conflagration of 1835 has continued in successful operation under its present title. The Capital of the Company is Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, which, together with a LARGE SURPLUS, is securely invested in Bonds and Mortgages, on property in the City of New York.

As this Company does not insure any "MANUFACTORIES," or what are termed "SPECIAL RISKS," and, moreover, confines its business within the City of New York and its immediate vicinity, it is presumed that it offers superior advantages to parties desiring insurance.

The office of the Company is at No. 67 Wall Street, where applications are received.

A PAPER FOR YOUR FAMILY.

THE HOME JOURNAL.

New Series, for 1851.

MORRIS AND WILLIS, EDITORS.

"The best family newspaper in the world."—Evening Star.

"Rather 'get in' coal than go without it."—Boston Post.

Published Weekly, at Two Dollars per Annum.

IN consequence of the great and continually increasing demand for this elegantly-printed, widely-circulated, and universally popular FAMILY NEWSPAPER, we have, heretofore, been unable to furnish the back numbers to only a very limited extent. To avoid this disappointment, on the first of January last we commenced the publication of a NEW SERIES, and printed such an increased edition as will enable us to supply New Subscribers from that date. Besides the original productions of the Editors—the Foreign and Domestic Correspondence of a large list of Contributors—the spice of the European Magazines—the selections from the most interesting publications of the day—the brief novels—the piquant stories—the sparkling wit and amusing anecdote—the news and gossip of the Parisian papers—the personal sketches of public characters—the stirring scenes of the world we live in—the chronicle of the news for ladies—the fashions and fashionable gossip—the facts and outlines of news—the pick of English information—the wit, humor, and pathos of the times—the essays on life, literature, society, and morals, and the usual variety of careful choosings from the wilderness of English periodical literature, criticism, poetry, &c. Several New Features of remarkable interest, enrich and give value to the New Series.

BRADY'S NATIONAL GALLERY OF DAGUERREOTYPES.

THIS collection embraces some of the most distinguished men of this country. The President and Cabinet, also the late President Polk and his Cabinet, Members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, Judges of the Supreme Court at Washington, and many other eminent persons, are included in this Gallery. The proprietor, being much of his time in Washington, has the advantage of adding to these portraits any others that may interest the public. This establishment is one of the most extensive in the world; its facilities for the production of portraits by the Daguerrean art being unrivalled. It now occupies two large buildings, 205 and 207 Broadway. The operating department is arranged in the most scientific manner, and directed by persons of acknowledged skill in the profession. It is the aim of the proprietor to render in every part of his business that attention which the public are entitled to, from the patronage he has received. At the annual exhibitions of the American Institute, for five years, the pictures from this establishment received the first prize, consisting of a silver medal. The last year the first gold medal ever awarded to Daguerreotypes was bestowed on the pictures from this Gallery.

DAGUERREOTYPES ON IVORY.

The subscriber has great pleasure in announcing that having been many years engaged in perfecting the art of Daguerre, he is now enabled to present Daguerreotypes on Ivory. By the recent discovery of this original and exquisite style of miniatures, a rare combination is effected, acknowledged by eminent artists to combine all that is accurate in the best Daguerreotypes with all that is beautiful in the most superb of Paintings. The rapidity with which they can be taken, requiring but little more time than what is usually bestowed on a daguerreotype, and their economy, commend them to the public. The coloring will be executed by Mr. McDougal, whose talent as a miniature painter is unrivalled. Specimens, among which is a superb portrait of Jenny Lind, are on exhibition at the subscriber's Gallery of Portraits.
